COLLABORATIVE METHODS
A MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

Dear [member_name_first],

Welcome to our February 2011 edition. This monthly newsletter showcases design solutions that The Schimberg Group provides to its clients. The Schimberg Group understands that collaboration is fundamental towards achieving best practices, sustainable success and Extraordinary Results.

President's Corner:

DURABLE DESIGNS

Widely available in the North American market, interior, exterior and lab grade panels feature a solid homogenous core with a protective melamine finish. This combination creates a self supporting material invaluable in furniture design as no additional structure or framing is required. Not only are the panels, and subsequent furnishings, impervious to mold, bacteria and moisture, but the impact, scratch and fire resistance test results hold up to stringent ASTM standards. Panels are available in countless color and core options and are guaranteed not to warp or delaminate. Unparalleled durability, design flexibility and sustainable products allow for institutional furnishings that look anything BUT institutional.

*-Spec-Rite
Manufacturer of Durable Designs Furniture*

How cool would it be to have furniture that will last a lifetime, aesthetically pleasing designed by an architect and able to include colors representative of your company, school or organization. It only made sense for us to team with Spec-Rite, a worldwide company in St. Louis, MO, to produce LINEAR, the perfect furniture line for multiple applications.
